Christian Women In Action

A Ministry to Catholic Women

From the desk of Stella Davis, President

"The harvest is plentiful."

My beloved in Christ Jesus, today I greet you from the retirement home for the Priests in Barranquilla, Colombia, South America where Rosalie and I have been staying for the past four days. We were brought here to recover before heading on home after a long week of working for the Lord.

Diane, Marney and the two of us spent time ministering to the poor, the sick, the destitute, terminally ill, and prayer groups, bringing spiritual food as well as physical food for God's hungry children. (Our mandate for 2010, if you recall in our last letter, was to be a voice for the one we hear crying: "Prepare the way for the coming of the Lord.") We brought along with us toys and care packages, and we bought over a million pesos worth of groceries for the poorest of the poor.

The Scripture passage that came to me was of Luke 10:2, "The harvest is plentiful, but the laborers are few; pray therefore the Lord of harvest to send out laborers into His harvest...I send you out as lambs in the midst of wolves." And that we did as everything was provided for us to do His work. We in return, brought God's peace, love, joy, and healing to His poor people. The awareness of Christ's love and the awareness of His presence was manifested to us in profound ways, as we ministered to God's children.

Again, I want to say, thank you, thank you, for your generosity of prayers, toys, food, and money. It helps us get the work done for the Lord. Without you this could not be done. I can truly say our mission was accomplished through the great effort of all CWIA members and friends. To God be the glory, and to all of us, God's blessings.

I wish I could tell you more about the beautiful people of Colombia in this letter. I invite you to come to our breakfast meeting on Saturday, March 27 and hear for yourself what the team experienced doing the Lord's work.

May God's love and His peace be with you.

Your servant in Christ,

Stella
