

CWIA Breakfast Meeting

Saturday, January 29, 2011, 9:00am - Noon

Holiday Inn – Eisenhower, Alexandria, Virginia

Guest Speaker: John T. Bruchalski, MD

Dr. John Bruchalski's passion is his family, and the renewal, restoration, and renaissance of healthcare, especially Catholic Healthcare. Having founded the Tepeyac Family Center out of his basement in Northern Virginia in 1994 with his wife Carolyn, he is now Chairman of Divine Mercy Care, a non-profit, faith-based, values driven healthcare organization that believes medicine is an act of mercy by uniting social justice with the Gospel of Life. He lives in the Capital area in a Polish commune with Carolyn, his wife of two decades, and his sons, JohnPaul and Joseph Francis; several dogs, cats, mice and his father Thaddeus, a member of the greatest generation. Don't miss our first meeting of the New Year!

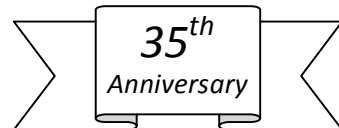

Stella is planning a trip to the Holy Land in the first week of November, but will only take 28 people. If you are interested in making this great trip, you must register and provide a $100 deposit before July 2011. Mail to CWIA at the address below. (First come - first served.)
